

Excellence Gateway case study reflection and development plan

This document, for use with the Excellence Gateway 'good practice' case studies provided by the JISC Regional Support Centres, is intended as a simple tool for you to use in reflecting on the studies in relation to your own practice and in planning developments based on them.

The right-hand column is there for you to describe your planned developments and note actions which need to be taken (along with details of those involved and timescales, etc.) in order to achieve them.
